

Dolores Hydock Dead Cats & Spunk Water

Dolores Hydock will perform "Dead Cats and Spunk Water: Superstitions and Magical Thinking in the Writings of Mark Twain" at the Public Library of Anniston and Calhoun County at noon on Wednesday, February 10, 2010. The program is free. Bring a bag lunch. Cookies and drinks will be provided.

Ms. Hydock is a professional actress and story performer, whose work has been featured at a variety of concerts, festivals, and special events throughout the U.S. She is a touring artist with the Alabama State Council on the Arts, a speaker with the Alabama Humanities Foundation and a member of the Southern Order of Storytellers. Dolores lives in Birmingham.

Public Library of Anniston-Calhoun County

Wednesday, February 10, 2010 at noon

108 East 10th Street, Anniston, AL

256-237-8501

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT
FOR THE ARTS

This performance is presented as part of Alabama's celebration of The Big Read. The book selected for the statewide reading project is The Adventures of Tom Sawyer by Mark Twain. Alabama libraries will encourage communities to read and discuss this timeless American novel during February through April of this year.

The Big Read is an initiative of the National Endowment for the Arts in partnership with the Institute of Museum and Library Services and Arts Midwest.

The Big Read is made possible by a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts.